

DAVID G. WALLACE

Dear Friends,

I will not be seeking re-election as the Mayor of Sugar Land. Serving you and our City over the past several years has been an incredible experience, an honor and privilege. As you can imagine, I have a vested interest in seeing the mayoral position filled by an individual with strong qualities in character, leadership and experience necessary to continue the quality growth and prosperity of Sugar Land. It is for this reason that I am endorsing Jimmy Thompson in the upcoming mayoral election on May 10th.

I have had the pleasure of serving with James (Jimmy) Thompson on the Sugar Land City Council as he held both District and At-Large Council seats. In addition to his 9 years on the Sugar Land City Council, Jimmy has over three decades of community service and is a fiscal conservative, strong family man and community leader. His civic experience is impressive and includes many elected, appointed and volunteer leadership positions.

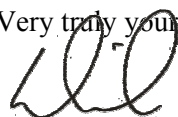

However, I have a few qualities to add that I believe make Jimmy Thompson the best candidate.

- I have always known Jimmy to be a professional and courteous leader who has an even-keeled personality that leads to consensus rather than dissention.
- Jimmy is an entrepreneurial, private business owner who is a true visionary with an astute business acumen. This is essential for effective leadership in our local government.
- Elected officials must make difficult decisions. Jimmy examines all factors at hand, hears all points of view on an issue, and after thoughtful consideration, he is decisive and steadfast.
- Jimmy understands the importance of long-range strategic planning, and is very quick to recognize operating efficiencies. These are traits that are vital to the fiscal health of our City.

Some wonderful things have taken place in Sugar Land during the past several years. For these accomplishments, we should all be very proud. However, the future of our City is every bit as critical as the years of the past. We have the opportunity to elect an individual with the character and experience to lead Sugar Land forward. I hope you will join me in this support for Jimmy Thompson.
